

From the Director's Desk

Hoping everyone is having a most enjoyable and relaxing summer and has included a healthy amount of reading and listening materials to enhance the fun. There is still plenty of time to catch up on the books and magazines you planned to get to this summer, or use one of our museum passes, attend one of the outdoor concerts, learn from our interesting presenters, have your children or teens participate in the Summer Reading Clubs or just unwind at a comfy chair and read a newspaper or use our free Wi-Fi – all FREE! There is always something for everyone at YOUR Seaford Public Library.

NY, NY: URBAN GEMS TO EXPLORE

Presented by Patricia Sommerstad

Monday, August 24th

2:00pm-3:30pm FREE

What makes New York City so exciting, so alluring? No matter how many times you visit, or even if you've lived there for a lifetime, New York City's five boroughs provide a never-ending source of new discoveries. In a city of over 8 million people, 200 nationalities, hundreds of museums, parks and historic sites, and thousands of restaurants, the possibilities for surprise and delight are endless! In this lecture, we will explore in-depth several favorites from a new perspective and discover new, exciting and often underappreciated urban gems. And, of course, wherever we "go", we'll find the best foods and places to eat. You'll leave with comprehensive handouts and most likely a prize or two! Registration begins Thursday, August 6th at the Reference Desk.

HOW THE JFK ASSASSINATION CHANGED THE CONSTITUTION Presented by James Coll

Tuesday, August 25th 2:00pm-3:30pm FREE

The assassination of President John F. Kennedy over fifty years ago was a defining moment in American history. Yet the story of how JFK's untimely death led to a change in the U.S. Constitution is less well-known. In this discussion, Detective Coll will examine and explain constitutional provisions dealing with a premature vacancy in the presidency and legal changes over time in the order of presidential succession. Registration begins Friday, August 7th at the Reference Desk.

James Coll is an adjunct associate professor of American and Constitutional history at Nassau Community College and a speaker in the NY Council for the Humanities Speaker Bureau. In addition, he is a detective in the New York City Police Department and the author of numerous articles.

Children's Programs

Amazing August

The 2015 Summer Reading Program, "Every Hero Has A Story" is winding down, and of course we'd like to give a big thank you to THE CHILDREN OF SEAFORD who participated. Because without our young readers there wouldn't be a Summer Reading Club. We had a record number of children register and participate in Summer Reading including:

500+ registered participants
5,000+ people attended 80+ events

Way to go Seaford!

Many thanks again to our volunteers who put in many busy hours during the months of June, July and August. Without these dedicated workers, the Summer Reading Program would not be possible. An especially big note of thanks to Miss Sabrina, Miss Maureen, Maggie & Christopher. They are so amazing, both individually and as a fantastic team. THANK YOU!

Miss Jackie Lopez- Head of Children's Services
