The artist earned staggering notoriety by revolutionizing the commercialization and accessibility of popular art with his enigmatic paintings of waifs with big eyes. The truth would eventually be discovered though: Keane's art was actually not created by him at all, but by his wife, Margaret (Amy Adams). BIG EYES centers on Margaret's awakening as an artist, the phenomenal success of her paintings, and her tumultuous relationship with her husband, who was catapulted to international fame while taking credit for her work. Rated: PG-13; 106 Minutes. REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED. BOOK DISCUSSIONS
"A CONFEDERACY OF DUNCES"
BY JOHN KENNEDY TOOLE

Wednesday, June 17th 3:00pm FREE

Awarded the Pulitzer Prize and considered by many an American comic masterpiece, John Kennedy Toole's literary classic features one of the most unforgettable characters in modern fiction: Ignatius Reilly. He's a mammoth misfit hilariously at odds with the world of the twentieth century, and his adventures take him to 'way down, to New Orleans' lower depths. Join librarian Eric Wasserman for a fun and lively discussion. Register now at the Reference Desk. Copies of the book will be available when you register.

"DANIEL WEBSTER: THE MAN AND HIS TIME"
BY ROBERT REMINI

Monday, July 27th 2:00pm FREE

Professor Remini magnificently impresses upon readers the importance in U.S. history of the works and deeds of Daniel Webster; but he certainly does not negate nor even downplay the great orator's defects of character and less-than-noble traits. However, along with John Calhoun and Henry Clay, of the so-called great triumvirate, the author shows that Webster's legacy is immense, and American history lovers will not be daunted by this immense biography. Please join library director Frank McKenna as we continue our journey through American History and Biography. Register beginning Monday, June 29th at the Reference Desk. Copies of the book will be available when you register.
